

Publicity Consent Form - Patient Consent

Terms of Consent

I understand that:

1. The World Hepatitis Alliance may use my case study profile and photograph / filming and any other reproductions or adaptations thereof either complete or in part, alone or in conjunction with any wording.

The case study profile / photograph / filming (s) will be used for:

- Media features; such as newspaper, radio, online or TV articles – this may involve an interview with a Medical Editor
 - As a written case study on the global World Hepatitis Day campaign website
2. If the World Hepatitis Alliance wish to use my case study profile / photograph / filming and any other reproductions or adaptations thereof either complete or in part, for any other purpose, then the World Hepatitis Alliance will obtain my consent.
 3. I do not own the copyright of the article(s) and I can confirm that I am over 18 years of age.
 4. If I do not want to be considered for future case study profiles, I will contact the World Hepatitis Alliance to remove my details from their records with immediate effect. However, I understand in certain circumstances, a journalist may already have written a story and it could be out of the World Hepatitis Alliance control to stop the story before it is published.
